WARLI ART PRODUCTS

Cluster Locations:
Palghar

Warli painting is a style of tribal art mostly created by the tribal people from the North Sahyadri Range in India. This range encompasses Palghar district. This tribal art was originated in Maharashtra, where it is still practiced today. Our clusters in Palghar District have been trained to use Warli art on contemporary products.

TASSAR PRODUCTS

Cluster Locations:
Bhandara

Tassar weaving is done by the Koshti community in the Bhandara District of Maharashtra. Tassar silk is called kosa in Sanskrit. The varieties produced in tassar weaving are mothe chaukada, a design in big squares and lahan chaukada, a weave with smaller squares. Our team collaborates with these clusters and utilises their Tassar silk production in making of Tassar silk sarees and apparel.
