

Tisser
hand to heart

About Us

Tisser means 'to weave'. As a community, Tisser India is weaving the legacy of loom and craft industry with the hands of women in rural clusters as they sustain their livelihoods.

We have brought the entrepreneurial leverage to our cultural legacy by carving a market online and offline, with other business and customers, weaving the home grown pride to longitudes and latitudes of India. We act as a bridge between the skilled artisans and the market, providing contemporary designs, interweaved with tradition, bringing sustainable handloom products to the right market segments, promoting heritage art forms through powerful brand narratives and ensuring fair and equitable trade practices.

Through deep partnerships with Aadyam (Aditya Birla Group's CSR initiative), Kosala Social and Livelihood Foundation - a social enterprise conceptualized by Hindalco and Xynteo Vikaasa Coalition, and Rangasutra, the objective is to unlock the potential of our indigenous weavers and create lucrative and sustainable livelihood opportunities for these artisans.
